Financial commitment

I am aware that all positions are voluntary, without financial remuneration. I agree to abide by all present and subsequent issued rules of First Assembly. I agree to participate in all training and team meetings before and after the missions trip. I further agree that First Assembly has the right to discontinue my ministry at any time at its sole discretion.

I clearly understand that raising all expenses will be my responsibility. I understand that if I am accepted on to a First Assembly missions team I will submit a $250 non-refundable deposit to secure my spot on the team. My signature below indicates my acceptance and full responsibility to raise the necessary monies to cover all anticipated personal costs related to this trip including airfare, accommodations, ground transport, food, insurance, emergency buffer fund, exit fees, visas, immunizations and administrative fee. By signing below I understand that if all funds are not submitted to First Assembly four (4) weeks prior to departure, I will not be able to participate in the missions trip.
